Business arising from previous meeting:

- Last month a Resident mentioned that bacon was too tough and overcooked, Les asked whether this matter had been resolved. Several Residents spoke of similar issues, with particular focus on the thinness of the bacon, requesting thicker slices. Sam to look into thicker cuts.
- Residents enjoyed last month's Happy Hour, and have agreed that it would be a great monthly addition to the activities Calendar.
- Residents were excited to hear that Armchair Travel will be returning Monday the 14th in the Alma Vickery Room.

General Business:

01: Meals: Residents are overall happy with their meals, but have requested more variety – suggestions include ox tail soup, lamb's fry, pizza, saveloys, salmon rolls, and cocktail frankfurts for special occasions. Sam says he is more than happy to introduce these to the menu, especially in regards to lamb's fry, as many Residents are very fond of this meal.

Residents are fond of silver beat, but find the long, stringy servings difficult to manage. They have suggested finer servings, to which the Kitchen is happy to oblige.

02: Mobile Library: Residents are looking forward to Edgarley's upcoming Mobile Library, with Judy Smith mentioning the Ladies' Auxiliary interest in assisting towards the costs of the Trolley.

03: Activities: Les asked Residents if they are happy with the activities, services and programmes on offer. Residents are satisfied with the current offerings and have no further suggestions at this stage.

04: Cinema Day: Last month's Cinema Day was a success, with Residents looking forward to this month's movie, with Leisure and Lifestyle looking to jazz-up future events with more snacks, such as Choc-top ice-cream.

05: New Cook: New head chef Tim Shaw work debut has been delayed, but will be joining the Edgarley Kitchen in a few weeks.

06: Newsletter: Residents complimented the breadth of content and comprehensiveness of August's Newsletter, spotlighting the Get to Your Neighbour section in particular.
