From: Trish McKenzie

Subject: COVID

Update on the current COVID-19 outbreak. The facility has had further positive cases with both residents and staff. The facility now has had a total of 18 positive residents and 13 staff members. We remain with 4 residents still requiring isolation these are all in the Glenelg Wing and 5 staff still off work due to COVID requirements for working in aged care.

The facility continues to inform the PHU and DOH. The DOH has provided a further 4 surge staff members to assist and extended the time of the first surge workforce.

All required care needs and precautions have been put in place in all wings. All visiting and PPE requirements remain the same as last MEMO.

Please if you have any question or concerns relating to this email, please contact me at the facility

Many Thanks
