From the CEO

Well, we are well and truly into the year now. Football season is upon us with Casterton Seniors having won their first game of the season on Saturday 18th against North Gambier by 50 points.

The repairs continue to the facility from the damage done by the 2024 hail storm. Please be patient while we have the workers on the roof, and the scaffolding surrounding the building. Also as part of this work the Air Conditioning system is not fully functional as units have to be removed for the work being done, and then replaced.

Coming up, senior management Raelene, Trish, Mandy and myself will be attending a couple of interstate conferences at different times in May/June where I am a guest speaker at one and at another a Digital presentation of Edgarley was accepted, a copy of this is below.

Also I have published a short book on my experiences from being a student nurse to a CEO. There is a website where the books can be purchased.

www.mangwray.com/publications

Edgarley is hoping to have a float in this year's Kelpie Festival Parade with a theme around "Priscilla Queen of the Desert." Hopefully, the weather will be okay to ensure that the residents can participate. If we can elect our Queen for the day it will be "..... Queen of Edgarley"

Join the Edgarley Ladies Auxiliary!

Are you looking for a rewarding way to give back? Our small but mighty volunteer team provides vital equipment and support for Edgarley residents, and we'd love for YOU to join us!

Easy Commitment: Meetings are held the first Monday of the month at 2 pm in the Alma Vickery function room.

Flexible Option: Can't make the meeting? You can help us on an ad hoc basis with our fun fundraisers!

Everyone Welcome: No prior connection to Edgarley is required.

FOOD REGISTER BOOK

Any fresh food brought into our facility for the residents will need to be entered into the register accordingly. The books can be found to the right of the Glenelg door. Thank you for your co-operation

A reminder to all NOK.
If a resident receives an updated Medicare or Pension card, we will need a copy for our records.

Thank you

Residents meeting

GLENELG Wednesday 6th May 1.30 pm

We wish to invite family members to these meetings which will be held on the first Wednesday of each month.

Michelle Parry-Hill and Chris Kerr are the resident/family representative on the Medication Advisory Committee.

If any resident or family member has any questions or issues regarding their medication management at Edgarley (this does not include pharmacy accounts, they are to be taken up directly with the Pharmacy) Please contact Michelle 0468 598 233 or Chris 0400 016 093 and they will bring those question/issues to the meeting.

Resident Shopping Day

The bus will be available each Monday from

1pm—4pm

Any residents who require to do any sort of errands in town, please let the Leisure and Lifestyles team know if you would like to be involved.

LEISURE AND LIFESTYLE VOLUNTEERS

Volunteering offers a chance to provide companionship, emotional support, and social engagement, significantly enhancing the quality of life for our residents. By sharing your time and skills, you make a positive contribution to our community.

To learn more, please phone Edgarley and speak to our Leisure and Lifestyle

Open Invitation: Join the -

Edgarley Consumer Advisory Committee

Are you passionate about ensuring the highest quality of aged care? Do you want your voice and the voice of care recipients to be heard?

Edgarley is extending an open invitation to dedicated individuals to join our Consumer Advisory Committee.

What is the purpose of the Committee?

The primary purpose of the Consumer Advisory Committee is to provide valuable, ongoing feedback (any time) to the Governing Body about the quality of aged care provided to our care recipients. Your, input will be crucial in helping us continually improve our services.

Who are we looking for?

We are seeking individuals who can bring the perspective of aged care consumers (care recipients, their representatives, or family members) to the table. Your commitment to honest, constructive feedback is what matters most.

Meeting Schedule

The Committee meets on a quarterly basis. Please note the meeting months for 2026:

- March 2026
- June 2026
- September 2026
- December 2026

How to Express Your Interest

If you are interested in joining the Consumer Advisory Committee and contributing to the quality of aged care at Edgarley, please contact:

Three Cheers for Edgarley's CEO Susan Wray for carrying out the following challenges to continue her quest for Easter donations to the Royal Children's Hospital Appeal. Sue suffered a barrage of eggs (soft and hardboiled) at the hands of giddy residents and workers. Sue also participated a Brain Freeze Challenge and lastly a spattering of all manner of food projected by Residents, Staff and even her own son until Sue looked like Mrs Doubtfire !

Aileen's Birthday Outing.

Aileen enjoyed a lovely birthday celebration at the Merino Community Centre, where she reunited with her friends from exercise class.

It was a wonderful afternoon filled with good company and great memories.

This month Residents were treated to a music performance from Barry and Gary Coulter.

We would like to thank Barry and Gary giving up their spare time to travel to Edgarley to entertain the Residents.

“Mum-isms”: Things Mums Say

Do you remember all those things Mom used to say? Some were words of wisdom. Some were educational. Some were warnings. And some of them you just didn't understand until you grew up and started using them on your own kids.

- Because I'm your mother that's why.
- Because I said so!
- I don't care what everyone else's mother does.
- I brought you into this world and I can take you OUT!!
- I've got eyes in the back of my head, that's how.
- Yes, I AM the boss of you.
- If you don't have anything nice to say, don't say anything at all.
- You be nice to your little brother. One of these days he's going to be bigger than you.”
- Do you think I was born yesterday?
- If I've told you once, I've told you a thousand times.
- Close that door! Were you born in a barn?
- This is why we can't have nice things.
- Always wear clean underwear; you never know when you'll have an accident.
- I slave for hours over a hot stove and this is the thanks I get?!
- Honestly... You'd lose your head if it wasn't screwed on!
- Bored! How can you be bored? I was never bored at your age.
- If all your friends were going to jump off a cliff, would you jump too?
- Watch your language!
- You have enough dirt behind those ears to grow potatoes!
- Be careful or you'll put your eye out.
- Who'll end up walking, bathing and feeding it...?
- You'll miss me when I'm gone!
- If I talked to my mother like you talk to me....
- Oh, you want to run away? Here, let me help you pack!
- Keep crying and I'll give you a good reason to cry.
- Wait until your father gets home!
- No dessert 'till you clean off your plate.

The Statement of Rights

The Statement of Rights clearly identifies your rights when seeking or receiving aged care services. Under the Aged Care Act 2024, your provider and aged care workers are legally obliged to deliver services in line with these rights.

Autonomy and freedom of choice

I have the right to make my own choices – about my care, relationships, lifestyle and taking risks – with support if I want it.

Equitable access

I have the right to have my needs assessed in a way that works for me including having my cultural background, past trauma or cognitive conditions, such as dementia, respected.

Safe, quality care

I have the right to be treated with dignity and respect by experienced aged care workers who value my identity, culture, spirituality and diversity.

Privacy and confidentiality

I must have my privacy respected and my personal information kept confidential, and be in control of who this information is shared with.

Communication and complaints

I have the right to be informed in a way I understand and to raise concerns without fear of reprisal. My feedback must be dealt with fairly and promptly.

Support and social connections

I can stay connected to important people, pets and culture including independent advocates. As an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander I can stay connected to Country and Island Home.

Star Wars Day

4th May

In a Galaxy Far, Far Away.....

May the fourth has become Star Wars Day for its close resemblance to the catch phrase, "May the force be with you". Regardless of whether you are a fan or not, the Star Wars phenomenon has had a huge impact on modern life. It has introduced a number of sayings and spin off/ copies of the movie. Whilst it may seem silly to celebrate such a day, it is one of the happiest days of the year. It began as an in joke that most people who had seen Star Wars was in on and it became a day where people joined together in Star Wars silliness regardless of their background.

Star Wars was an epic movie that was written and directed by George Lucas and premiered in 1977. It became a worldwide smash hit. Audiences had seen nothing like it before, sat in the theatre watching the enormous words scroll up the screen at the beginning of the movie, then the special effects which today seem so basic and yet, back then, were just fantastic! It took us all to a fantasy place we had never been before. Characters such as Luke Skywalker, Hans Solo, Princess Leia, Chewbacca, C3P0, R2D2, Darth Vader, Yoda and Obi – Wan Kenobi. Today, 40+ years later there are still movies in franchise being made watched. Merchandise is sort after and some things are worth thousands of dollars to collectors. A lightsabre of Luke Skywalkers sold for over $172,000 and a camera used by George Lucas sold for $625,000.

Ronald Reagan even called his Strategic Defence Program "Star Wars". In 1979, Margaret Thatcher's political party in Britain was the first to coin the phrase "May the Fourth be with You" to congratulate her on her win on the 4th May 1979.

We all know someone who can rattle off their favourite Star Wars Quotes. Some Star Wars Sayings that you may know are:

Do ...or do not. There is no try. By Yoda

Aren't you a little short for a stormtrooper? By Princess Leia

I know – By Hans Solo

No... I am not your father – By Darth Vader

I have a bad feeling about this. By Hans Solo

It has spawned a bunch of Star Warsisms, such as Yoda speak, the Jedi Religion, and Vading (where people photo bomb with a Darth Vader costume on, usually on May the 4th).

May the Fourth is celebrated with costumes, screenings of the films, people "Vading" other people and Star Wars themed parties.

Do you have a favourite Star Wars Character?
